

Entrepreneurship Development Cell

The Game of Life

About the event:

The "Game of Life" is an engaging and thoughtprovoking event designed to simulate real-life decision-making while providing a fun and interactive experience. Participants will navigate through various scenarios, make strategic choices, and experience the thrill of life's unpredictability. This event emphasizes Entrepreneurship Development (ED) and cultural elements, making it a unique blend of learning and entertainment.

Event Rules:

Gameplay Rules:

- The game consists of one round, with each player completing a single turn across the map.
- Players will encounter various real-life scenarios such as investing in the stock market, choosing the number of children, taking risks like be□ng in a casino, and exploring career opportunities and entrepreneurship ventures.
- Players will roll dice or draw cards to move across the map and face scenarios. Each decision will have consequences, such as gaining or losing points or money.
- Real-life characters may be introduced during gameplay. Participants must not interfere with or provoke conflicts involving these characters.

For any queries, feel free to contact:

Daman : +91 99504 20821 | Saksham : +91 82786 56448

General Rules:

- Players must follow the instructions provided for each scenario.
- Fair play is mandatory; any form of cheating will lead to disqualification.
- Respect fellow participants, organizers, and any real-life characters introduced.

Winning Criteria:

- The winner will be determined based on their final score at the end of the round. Scores will take into account cash (money), liquid assets, marriage, children, and other accumulated factors.
- In case of a tie, a tiebreaker challenge will be conducted.

Additional Notes:

- No material or props used in the game should be damaged or destructed.
- The final decision in any matter will rest with the ED cell.

For any queries, feel free to contact:
Daman: +91 99504 20821 | Saksham : +91 82786 56448

✉ blitzschlag@mnit.ac.in

📷 @blitz_mnit

blitzschlag.co.in

